G K M

Rom leba Robbe Won Absen Loballanse much Warte in gether beather it who as a more larger Joseph Welling gether broth with an a more larger Joseph Welling gether I would be sound and his volle I blefano & whome I app or damme worken I blefano & whom I say to be sound and par wells now, to warter whenever Joseph I aller such I down to warter whome I may a I aller such I down to warter whome I may a I work from fewerbands. Cell finds as pay just I for his morting of a sound getween the sake very purpled and the surfaction of the stay of the I was the stay of the I was the stay of the Same I should similarly associated backer supported associated between John school of the surfaction of the surface of the

Georg Kolbe Museum, Berlin 16.12.2025

Brief von Otto Greiner an Georg Kolbe

Sammlungsbereich	Korrespondenzen
Verfasser*in	Otto Greiner
Adressat*in	Georg Kolbe
Erwähnte Personen	Max Klinger
	Paul Hartwig
	Johannes Guthmann
	Elsa Asenijeff
	Kurt Tuch
	Joachim Zimmermann
	Gustav Klimt
Datierung	14.04.1904
Umfang	Brief, 1 Blatt
Erwerbung	Nachlass Georg Kolbe, übergeben von Maria von Tiesenhausen 2002
Inventarnummer	GK.111
Datensatz in Kalliope	1507545
Rechte	Public Domain Mark 1.0

Inhaltsangabe

Georg Kolbe pflegte während seines dreijährigen Romaufenthaltes ab 1898 eine enge Freundschaft zu Greiner und zu Siegfried Wagner, dem Sohn Richard Wagners.